

Summer Homework for Music

Welcome to the music department. This is a very busy two years which needs to start before September. Work your way through this document, it will really help with your confidence.

1. Students are to watch the playlist below - Howard Goodall's Story of Music, Part 1 - 6 - making notes and key points. These videos will help you immensely on your A-Level journey. You will be asked and quizzed on these in September.
2. Please have a solo performance prepared to perform in the first week of term.
3. In the style of Howard Goodall, please be prepared to present your music, with a brief history of its conception and creation, the composer, purpose of composition.

4. Visit musictheory.net and work your way through the lessons/exercises on scales, intervals, key signatures and chord recognition. Take a photo of your screen showing your score. If you struggle with reading bass clef, you can do pitch and rhythm exercises too.
5. You must have a folder, lined paper and some manuscript sheets ready for lesson 1
